LIVINGSTON

W. M. Fallas has moved his family to Lebanon Junction. He has purchased property there and will make that city his future home. Judge L. W. Bethurum, of Mt. Vernon, was here Tuesday on business. — D. K. Argenbright was in Mt. Vernon latter part of last week. — Wade Graves has purchased property near our town and has recently moved to it. — Judge G. M. Ballard, of Mt. Vernon, was in our town Monday. — Miss Marie Blanford, of Louisville, is visiting her cousin, Miss Ella Mae Blanford, of this place. — Ed Asher, who has been failing in health for some time, left Sunday for Colorado Springs. — Mrs. Thomas Farley remains very feeble and not much hope for her recovery. — Misses Hazel and Ava Griffin have returned from a weeks visit with relatives at London. — We have learned that O. D. Ponder has returned home. He was drafted into the service of U. S., but was later sent home. — James Jones has purchased a house and lot on the Livingston heights and now is repairing the property and will occupy it in a few days. — A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cottongim is very sick. — Mrs. B. H. Griffin has returned from Cincinnati. — Mrs. K.

L. Mattingly, of Covington, has returned home after a few days visit with relatives. — Mrs. W. B. Rice and children have returned from a few days visit with relatives at East Bernstadt. — Well, the Fourth Liberty Loan is on now, and now is the time to get busy. The Bulgarians surrendered and Turkey about gobbled her last. So we see things are going to happen now. A few more hard fights and a few more million dollars and the boys will be in Berlin. If you are undecided about the bonds, only think of the sinking of the Lusitania, dashing helpless children's brains out against rocks, violating young girls, striking old men dead, burning French and Belgian churches, firing on Red Cross hospitals, poisoning drinking wells, gassing orphan asylums, driving hungry and suffering millions into exile, and more. After thinking of all this, go buy Bonds. We believe if we could see the bottomless pit of hades and look under, we would see this trade mark: Made in Germany. — J. B. Donnelly (the Irish operator), left today (Tuesday) for Lexington and Georgetown for a week's rest. — Mrs. O. R. Foley and children, of Paris, Ky., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McGuire, have returned home. — Mrs. G. V. Caloway and daughter are visiting relatives at Berea this week. — Mrs. Bettie Warren and daughter, of Pittsburg, Ky., were visiting her sister, Mrs. G. S. Griffin latter part of last week. — The Liberty Loan special passed through here Tuesday, but was not scheduled to stop. — Mr. and Mrs. Solmie Griffin, who lived near Mt. Vernon, are moving to our town. — Miss Eva Waddle is attending school at Mt. Vernon. — Mrs. Urban Chuning and daughter, Miss Ruth, have returned from Nashville, Tenn., after a few days visit with relatives. — Claud Griffin will move his family in the near future to our town. — John Clark, who has been gone from our town for quite a while has returned.

BRONCHIAL TROUBLE.

Mrs. A. E. Sidenberger, Rockfield, Ind., states: "For an attack of bronchial trouble which usually assails me in the spring I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the only thing that gives me relief. After using it for a few days all signs of bronchial trouble disappears."

WOMAN'S MITE TO COME OUT OF HIDING

SHE KNOWS THE HOUR OF CRISIS AND ALWAYS RESPONDS.

By Most Any Woman.

Lend. In my youthful days money used to get pretty tight occasionally. My father and his partner were trying to do some big things and every once in a while they were squeezed for cash. It was a real emergency sometimes. Things would be just about ready to go over the top when there would be a demand for more cold dollars. And they didn't have them. At such times mother used to notice the gathering of worried frowns.

"What's the matter?" she asked, without much need. She usually knew.

"Oh, we've got a chance to put something through. But our money is all tied up," father would answer and a hopeful sound would creep into his voice.

Then mother would go to some hiding place of her own and bring forth a roll.

"Here's the money you gave me two months ago for a fur coat. Would that help?"

Would it help? It saved the day many a time.

Uncle Sam is in just that fix now. He has plenty of good-as-gold resources. But there is a big crisis on and he needs the cash to go over the top. There is a tremendous thing at stake, so tremendous that it is a little bit hard to talk about it. But we all know just what it means to us, to the women, perhaps, most of all.

And thousands of women are coming forward just as mother used to do, bringing the roll they had tucked away somewhere.

"Here's my money. Will it help?" they are asking.

Will it help? It may be that this tremendous day when the whole fate of the world hangs in the balance will be saved by the proffered dollars of the women of America.

Won't every one of the ten million of us bring out our little roll, and say, "Here, Sam, I'll lend you mine?"

OCTOBER 12 WILL BE LIBERTY DAY

COLUMBUS' MEMORY TO BE RECALLED IN LIBERTY LOAN RALLIES.

Columbus Day, October 12th, will be Liberty Day this year. The United States government is asking the country to observe the anniversary of the discovery of America with a nationwide rally for the promotion of the Liberty Loan—the means of saving America today.

The Treasury Department and the United States Bureau of Education are co-operating in this plan and suggestions are being mailed by the Educational Department to all of the schools of the country, giving programs for an appropriate Harvest Home Festival to be held on that day.

L. B. Franklin, director of the National War Loan organization, in a letter to Governor Fletcher of the Fourth District Federal Reserve Bank says in regard to this:

"The two central ideas—the discovery of our country and the Harvest Home Festival—are so simple and yet so significant that every community will be able to adapt them to local conditions and express them effectively."

"There is a logical unity between both of these ideas and the Liberty Loan," he said further. "When the people of a community recount the fruits of their summer's labor they will naturally ask themselves what share of them they ought to invest in Liberty Bonds. When they come to realize what the discovery of America has meant to them personally, what it has meant for the cause of freedom and democracy, what it will mean for the salvation of the world in a present world tragedy, when they begin to feel all this, they must of necessity say, this is worth investing in, worth fighting for, worth making any sacrifice for."

"The Harvest Home Festival is our earliest form of American celebration before cities were built, and it would be a distinct gain to carry the idea over into city life. The characteristic harvest of the city is not fruit or grain, but the products of social life like commerce, arts, music, architecture. City and country communities will, of course, celebrate the day after its own fashion, but the Harvest Home idea applies equally to both. What ever a community's particular type of product may be, on Liberty Day it should be to reap a harvest of dollars for democracy. On this day we meet not as city or country people, but as citizens, all united for the single purpose of serving the Nation by devoting a part of our products to its needs."

Mt. Vernon School Takes Part In Liberty Loan Campaign

The fact that the citizens of Mt. Vernon are alive to the issues of the times was evidenced last night by the large, enthusiastic and appreciative audience present at the auction sale held at the school house for the purpose of helping finance the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign. The following program was rendered by the pupils:

Star Spangled Banner, Audience We're Out to Win, School Flag Drill, Miss Ruth Mullins' Room

Over There (a parody) School The Home Road, Special Chorus Pack Up Your Troubles, Old Black Joe, Parodies There's Long, Long Trail

The School Band played several selections which were well rendered and highly appreciated. With the kind and efficient assistance of Mr. Ed Smith, auctioneer, and Messrs Albright, Cooper and Richards, as clerks, about $45.00 was realized from the sale of perishable goods alone.

There was so much donated for the occasion that not more than one-third was sold. There still remains among numerous other things the nicest display of canned fruit and jellies seen here for a long time. This will be sold on Monday night, October 7, at 8 p.m., at School House. All cordially invited to be present.

Mr. Scott Dickerson and Miss

Friday morning September 20th,

and were married in Jeffersonville, Indiana. The groom is the son of Prof. and Mrs. W. R.

Dickerson, of Livingston, and is one of Rockcastle's promising young men. He is now an employee of the L. & N. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. A. H. Hamlin. She is one of Mt. Vernon's very best girls and the groom is to be congratulated in winning such a noble young lady for a companion.

They will make their home in Lebanon Junction. Their many friends extend congratulations and wish them many years of happiness.

Ellie M. Coffey writes that the pie supper held at the Cedar Hill was a success. All the pies sold for a good price, the proceeds going for the benefit of the Red Cross funds. The total collection was $41.18.

She also states that there will be a school fair held at Wildie, Saturday, Oct. 12th. Everybody is invited to come and spend the day. All of Div. 6, including 12 schools will be present, and the teachers of those schools urge the people to come and see what the rural school children of Rock-castle are doing. There will be some able speakers present. The school fair held at Wildie last year

by the Wildie and Cedar Hill

all who attended, and we teachers are trying to make this one even better.

Food Administration

I am advised that some merchants in Rockcastle county, are selling flour without the 20 per cent. of substitute—others are putting over a crooked deal by selling a customer meal and buying it back from him. The State

Food Administration has called on me for evidence against these merchants, that they may be dealt with by the Federal authorities. The merchant who is not loyal to his Government [will be dealt with just like any other disloyal man. When called upon to do so, by the county Food Administrators, the Food Administration will furnish secret service men to get this evidence. I shall be very sorry for any Rock-castle merchant to have to be dealt with for this act of disloyalty, but loyal merchants must be protected and the war must be won.

different as they can't speak

English at all. We have some their company and regiment and send me at once if any chance at all. Have not had a letter close. Answer soon.

This is not merely the Kaiser's War It is the War of the German People

There used to be some disposition in this country to discriminate between the German people and the Kaiser.

Some people used to say that this war was a matter of the German rulers and that the German people were not to blame, that they were compelled to fight and that we had no quarrel with the German people.

Nothing could be further from the truth than this idea.

General von Stein, the German Minister of War, in answer to someone who said that the war was a family Hohenzollern affair said vigorously: "It is not one family in the country which is waging war, but the German people, under the Kaiser, is waging war."

We know how willingly the German people have shown themselves to do everything that their rulers have told them to do. We know how gleefully they have rejoiced over every crime, how they have co-operated fiendishly and enthusiastically with the butchers and baby killers of their army and navy.

Right here in America we have seen some of their work.

With base ingratitude to the country that fed and protected them there have been German people in America, hiding behind citizenship papers, who have proved traitors of the deepest dye, who have talked and worked against America, who have conspired, blown up buildings and bridges and have done everything in their power to lend aid and comfort to the enemy.

Were they under any compulsion from the German Kaiser? No! Yet they did their evil work cheerfully for him.

Let us then not make the mistake of thinking that we are not fighting the German people and let us not make the mistake of thinking that we have an easy task ahead of us.

We must bend every possible energy in order that we may make certain of victory and the one thing for every one of us to do is to buy LIBERTY BONDS and buy them freely.

Four Queens --- Each Is Worth Fortune In Her Own Name

THE aristocracy of the cow world will be on display at the National Dairy Show, which will be held at Columbus, Ohio, October 10-19, this year. The four grand champion cows of the recognized dairy breeds are shown. All of them and all the medals and ribbons they have won will be shown at the Dairy Show. Opposite each breed is the man who will judge the cows, who will compete with these recognized leaders for first position. They are Charles L. Hill, Rosedale, Wis., judge of Guernseys; W. S. Moscrop, Lake Elms, Minn., judge of Holsteins; H. H. Kildee, Ames, Ia., judge of Ayrshires; and Hugh G. Van Pelt, Waterloo, Ia., judge of Jerseys. These men are nationally recognized experts in the lines they have been designated to judge.

HAS A MESSAGE FOR THE WOMEN

Government Considers Dairy Industry of the Greatest Importance.

ENGAGES EXPERTS' SERVICE

Prominent Women Educators Will Divide Their Time Between Washington and Columbus Until After the Great National Dairy Show is Over.

The government plainly considers the dairy interests of the country of extraordinary importance and believes that it has a message of great value to the women of the United States as is shown by the co-operation which is being extended to the National Dairy Show which will be held at Columbus, Ohio, October 10-19.

The government has reached out and commandeered the services of two expert women from two of the leading universities of the country and has given them instructions to divide their time between Washington and Columbus until after the Dairy Show is over. These women are Miss Emma Conley, in charge of the home economics department of the University of Wisconsin, now on a year's leave of absence to the States Relations Service Committee of the Department of Agriculture, and Miss Jessie M. Hoover, who was dean of the home economics department of the University of Idaho before becoming attached to the dairy division of the Bureau of Animal Industry at Washington. After making a survey of the possibilities of the Dairy Show for delivering the message the government wants the American housewives to get, they have named the following committee to co-operate: Miss Edna N. White, director home economics, Ohio State University, and president American Home Economics Association; Miss Gertrude Van Hoesen, formerly of the University of Chicago and now of United States Department of Agriculture, and Miss Anna Van Meter, home economics department, Ohio State University. One of the largest of all the buildings of the Exposition Grounds will be turned over to this work. There will be practical demonstrations of dairy lunches of nutritious meals prepared largely from dairy products and there will be a special restaurant managed by the home economics department of the State University. Child Welfare work will be exemplified in many ways. There will be lectures and demonstrations of the necessity for milk in the diet of all children. Dr. E. V. McCollum, of Johns Hopkins University will exhibit the famous rat colony which was used in his experiments to determine the actual food value of milk and the dire consequence of a lack of milk in the regular diet of youngsters. Another special feature will be the possibilities of dairy products in filling the dinner pail, a problem which the women all over the United States are finding peculiarly difficult under the present high schedule of food prices.

SIREs AND THEIR GETS AMONG THE EXHIBITS

Calamity Jane will not be at the National Dairy Show at Columbus, Ohio, October 10-19 this year. Calamity Jane attracted more attention a year ago in ten days than in all the three years of her earlier experience.

But Calamity Jane is dead. She has gone the way of many another unprofitable cow.

She was one of the 8,000,000 cows in the United States which eat more than they produce. They may give a little milk, night or morning, but in reality they milk their owner. It is part of the purpose of the Dairy Show to inspire farmers and dairymen everywhere to know exactly what each cow in their herd is doing and whether or not it is a profitable investment. Among the exhibits which impress this lesson will be a series of sire and their gets, showing how intelligent breeding increases the output and consequently the profit of each generation of cows.

How the Farmer can Help His Boys at the Front

Nothing is more natural than for you to be anxious to do everything in your power to help your boys who have gone to the front.

You were proud of them when they were children. You were proud of them when they grew up to be men and you were prouder than ever when they went away to fight for Uncle Sam and to help him to rid the world forever of the brutal Hun.

Nothing is more natural also than for you to wonder how the boys are getting on "over there", perhaps to worry, too, about whether your own boy is being taken care of and to wish that someone would tell you just what you could do to bring him safely home again.

Well, there is a way and a very good way for you to help your boys at the front.

Don't worry about hardships because Uncle Sam isn't going to let the boys suffer SO LONG AS YOU DO YOUR SHARE

Your share to help the boys is to see that Uncle Sam never lacks the necessary money to keep them supplied with everything they need.

The way to do this is to buy LIBERTY BONDS and buy them freely.

Every time you think of how you would like to help your boys, buy a Liberty Bond.

Talk to your neighbors about LIBERTY BONDS and get them to buy and keep on buying.
